PITCAIRN ISLANDERS .- The Alfa of the 12th says that contributions for this interesting people are again in order. The "Condenser" contributed some time since will be sent, while the firm of Pope | Hon, H. M. Whitney addressed him as follows: & Talbot have donated 1800 feet of lumber. DEATH OF MR. C. H. LEWERS .- This gentlemen who has been a resident of these islands for the past quarter of a century, and been identified with its material progress, died at his residence in this city on Sunday last. A RACE CHANCE .- Four lots of land on Nunanu Avenue will be offered at auction to-day by Mr.

Bartow. This is an opportunity to procure a nice that will not occur again very soon. A JUDGE COMPLAINED OF .- A letter from Hana, Maui, in the Lahui Hawaii, complains of the unlawful and oppressive proceedings of the District Judge, C. C. Kakani. The Lahui says that similar complaints against that judge have been frequent. AN ISLAND PRINCESS .- Says the N. Y. A-NARBOW Escape .- On August 29, a train on the overland route near Palisade, narrowly escaped a fearful wreck. Two hoodlums, in revenge for having been put off the train had removed a switch which was discovered just in time. On the train were Miss Carrie A. Castle and her brothers James and George Castle,

THE TRANS-PACIFIC TELEGRAPH ... The Voce del Popolo, Italian paper, says : On the 15th of August the House of Representatives at Washington Moreno for a Trans-Pacific Telegraph Cable. He has passed through incredible difficulties, but is now triumphant, as the bill is signed by the ANCIENT IDOLS .- Recently some of the employees of Dr. Trosseau, in North Kona, Hawaii, discovered a lot of wooden idols of the olden time, in a cave on the mountain. They were in a good state of reservation and had doubtless been undisturbed in their hiding place since the time when they were deposited there to escape the general destruction of idols by order of Kaahamanu, in 1822. AFTER MANY YEARS .- Dr. George A. Lathrop, who resided here some ten years previous to 1859, and was at one time Acting U. S Consul for this port, arrived on the mail steamer last Thursday, after an absence of seventeen years. The Doctor looks hale and well, with much of his old time vivacity, but the storms of Northern winters have NAVAL NEWS .- Captain Bancroft Gherardi, tried by a court martial, was found guilty of cruel and barbarous treatment of a seaman, and sentenced to be publicly reprimanded and suspended from duty for two years. The Secretary of the Navy in approving of the proceedings, intimates that the pun-

HUSBAND MURDER .- A letter from Hilo in the Lahui, states that on the 5th inst., at Walakea, a voman named Kalimakubi killed her husband, Kanhane, by choking him to death, after savagely piting his nose, throat and fingers. Kanhane was an invalid and unable to protect himself from the rial at the November term. Beware of Old Iron .- On Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock an explosion occurred in the rear of the cooper's shop, corner of King and Bethel streets, the sound of which was like that of a small cannon. The shop is in the occupancy of a lot of Chinese cabinet makers, and our reporter found them standing around the remains of a furnace and a glue-pot that had been effectually smashed by an unaccountable blow-up, looking at one another in astonishment and occasionally ejaculating. "Hy, yah!" After some search, the remains of an old whaling bomb-lance were found, that had lain in the late Mr. Lewis' cooper's shop for years, and which the Chinamen had used as a support to their glue-pot. The affair might have been more serious, but that no one was near the furnace when the explosion occurred. Home Again .- The return in good health of the HEMP AND MANILA CORDAGE ! Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop by the Steamer of Thursday morning last, after an absence of over a year in foreign lands, was made the occasion of quite an ovation by their numerous friends and acquaintances, and more particularly the native Hawaiians. Mrs. Pauahi Bishop is the representative of an ancient line of high chiefs, and is deservedly respected and beloved by her people and in this city, we must add to the amount above (730) about 300 Chinese who have never been reported, making the total number of cases since the 19th of May over 1000.

Mr. Carter said : Friends and fellow citizens:—I am happy to join you in this tribute to the American Minister Resident. I remember something over a year ago when you paid me a similar compliment on my return from Washington on the consummation of the first step toward the end which gladdens us to-day. At that time. I assured you that the faith of the United States Senate and President was pledged to Hawaii, and that you could trust to the final completion of the treaty. To-day that pledge is ned. (Great che The United States in this treaty, fellow citizens. says to you Hawaiians, "By this we want to encourage you in industry and frugality." themselves of this opportunity, they will cease to diminish as a nation, and be as prosperous as the Americans who have held out their right hand to help us upward and onward. (Cheers). Now let us go and felicitate the King, whose good fortune it has been to uffix his name to Hawaii's charter of prosperity. (Great cheering). On the way to the Government House, the proession filed into the Hawaiian Hotel yard, and halting, loud calls were made for the United States Consul, Dr. Scott. That gentlemen, though taken responded in the following extremely happy remarks, which were received with hearty applause : Gentlemen: -- I congratulate you and the people of my country on the happy event over which you are rejoicing to-night. Commercial relations have been entered into between the Sandwich Islands the benefit of both. Permit me to express for my country the earnest desire that its little sister in the midst of the Pacific Ocean may grow strong and prosperous under the influence of the treaty; and that the intimate and fraternal relations existing beretofore between the two countries may be greatly strengthened

I thank you for this friendly call, which I receive as a compliment to the country whose commercial interests I represent, rather than to myself, and bid you good-night. At Aliiolani House were found His Majesty the King and his Ministers, and the Hon. Mr. Carter addressed the King as follows: May it please Your Majesty: -We your loyal subjects thank you for this opportunity, graciously granted us to congratulate you upon the final con-summation of the Reciprosity Treaty with the United States of America.

We congratulate you, Sire, that in your reign you have been enabled to realize the wishes of your illustrious predecessors upon the throne of We congratulate you, because Sire, we are convinced it will bring prosperity to your people, new guarantees for the independence of the nation and reased stability to your throne. It has been the fortune of many monarchs to lead their peoples to eminence and glory in the paths of war and carnage, but you, Sire. in the peaceful paths of

We recall with satisfaction the labors of those by whose endeavors the details have been arranged and carried to a happy conclusion, and we ember Sire, with loyal gratitude, the personal efforts and interest of yourself; and now that the anxious days are over which have marked this protracted negotiation, we gather with pleasure to tender you these our joyful congratulations on this auspicious day, and our hopes that you may long live to enjoy with your people the fruits of your patriotic endeavors. (Cheers). His Excellency W. L. Green, H. M.'s Minister for Foreign Affairs responded :

Mr. Carter and Gentlemen:--His Majesty has requested me to express to you how much he is gratified in witnessing this demonstration on this appy occasion : on the day that we receive the news of the final accomplishment of the hopes and efforts of himself, his predecessors and of successive Hawaiian Ministers for years past. And His Majesty is not unmindful how much this country owes to your efforts, Mr. Carter, in conjunctio with those of his Envoy now in Washington, for accomplishing this great result-the Reciprocity Treaty with the United States of America. I am aware, Mr. Carter and Gentlemen, that there are those who profess to think that this treaty may threaten the independence of this kingdom. But in what way? Does it do more than secure to us the great market of the United States for our productions? It does indeed partially place us in the position of one of the United States, commercially, whilst it imposes upon us none of their bur-dens, and leaves us absolutely free to continue manage our own affairs, in fine, to preserve our

The United States desire our independence, and are content to allow us a good round sum to enable us to maintain it, well knowing that it may be millions saved to them in the future, whilst as an immediate return, they correctly calculate upon this treaty as fostering an enlarged foreign commerce, as another feeder to the great commercial emporium of the West, and as a means towards a great object, namely controlling the commerce of the Pacific, objects of which the value cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. Let me ask you then Gentlemen, would not any Ministry be traitors to their country—Hawaii nel—who seeing this position of affairs, failed to seize the opportunity to conclude desire our independence, and are content to allow affairs, failed to seize the opportunity to conclude this treaty, and add so much to our wealth and prosperity, and at the same time strengthen our independence by so doing?

Mn. Epiron :- In one of my rambles about town, walking down Richard street I observed with no little regret and astonishment that some of the beautiful trees that have lined the wall of the Palace grounds had apparently been recently felled, result of negotiations which were commenced by and many others barbarously backed and mutilated. What do the Commissioners of Crown Lands -for am to suppose it is done by their ordersmean by this waste and disfigurement of the adornments of the place, and how is it that the Ministers permit it to be done? The Palace grounds, as much as any other portion of the Royal Domain, belong to the nation, and both Ministers and Commissioners should be held accountable for any waste or reckless mutilation of their appendages.

To the Editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser. SIR :- Can you give any information as to who the proper party is, to apply to, to have the loose horses and cattle who roam at will over the part of town bordering on the plains, removed? It is a great nuisance when driving home of a dark night to be run into by half a dozen animals during the journey. and moreover it is dangerous. Another unpleasant result is to be roused up in the night to find that the gates have been forced open, and the lawn taken possession of by these beasts as a pasture. London, Sept. 12.-The Standard's despatch from Belgrade says the answer of Turkey concerning the conditions of peace has been received, but not officially communicated. Russia will not permit Servia to accept. The question is now: when will Russia throw off the mask and openly prosecute the war that she is actually waging, while pretending to be merely the Servians' friend?

> sia to check the warlike aspirations of her people, bas received Prince Gortsbakoff's reply to Ger-many, laying down conditions under which Russia will uphold peace under the present circumstances. The British Minister for Foreign Affairs, judging from the tone of his address yesterday, is not much impressed with the outrages which have been committed by the Turks on the Christians in the Principalities. He regards the political aspect of the question as of more importance than the murder of innocent women and children and the wholesale burning of towns and villages. It is also evident from the tone of his remarks that the Tweed Captured.—Madrid, Sept. 16.—It was found in July last that Tweed was in Santiago de Cuba, having passed there from Havana. General Jovellar was applied to by the American consul to have Tweed secured and sent to the United States. General Jovellar was quite willing, even in the absence of an extradition treaty, to oblige the American Government, in return for their courtesy in the Arequillez case some years ago. Tweed, however, was apprised in Santiago of his impending danger and sailed for Vigo, Spain, July 27th, on the sailing vessel Carmen. Minister Cushing thereupon notified the Spanish Government of the fact, and found them willing to arrest Tweed and return him to Cuba or deliver him up to the American Consul. Every precaution was taken by the Spanish government to secure Tweed's arrest in any port of Spain or on any coast line by which he might arrive. Stringent orders were given to the local authorities, especially those of Vigo and the Galican coast. On September 6th the Carmen hove in sight off Vigo, and was immediately boarded by the Governor of Pontevede That official recognized Tweed at once from photographs which he had had in his possession for some time. Tweed was entered on the ship's papers under the name of Secor, and was accompanied by a man giving his name as Wm. Hunt, who is said to be his nephew. Both were at once secured and thrown into the calaboose, under a strong guard, but were subsequently transferred. by order, to a fortress in Vigo, under command of the Captain-General.

A report that Russia has demanded freedom of passage for warsnips of all nations through the Hellespont and Dardanelles, has made a lively excitement among European diplomatists. The French and British got the advantage of the Czar in the Crimean war and compelled him to consent to a stimulation that warships. And now, Your Majesty, Mr. Carter and Gentlemen. I beg leave to take the opportunity to say on the part of myself and colleagues how fully we also appreciate His Majesty's personal efforts in a stipulation that warships, except those of Turkey, should not pass between the Black Sea and the Mediterranean. It was a trick to deprive Rusand has been ratified and duly proclaimed on the sia of the use of part of its navy, and the public also appreciate His Majesty's personal efforts in sia of the use of part of its navy, and the public securing the great consummation which you are now celebrating. London. September 5—6 A. M.—At a large meeting held in Rochdale, last night, to protest against Turkish atrocities, a letter from John Bright was read. Bright said: It is now understood throughout the world that England is the main, if not the only, supporter of Turkish rule in Europe. LONDON, September 6.-Mr. Gladstone, in bis pampblet on the Bulgarian borrors and the question of the East, says: It is urgent, in addition to the termination of the war, first, to put an end to the anarchical misrule, plundering and murdering which still desolates Bulgaria. Second, to make effectual provision against its occurrence, by excluding the Ottoman Government from administrative central, not only in Bosnia and Hernegovina, apply all its vigor to concur with the other States of Europe in obtaining the extinction of Turkish executive power in Bulgaria. Gladstone concludes with an appeal for the organized collection and distribution of relief to Bulgarians.

Vienna. September 6.—Since the declaration that England would not support Turkey against Russian interference, Austria is looked upon in Constantinople as the Power to oppose Russia. Consequently, the Austrian Ambassador now occupies an exceptional position of power, which the British Ambassador recently held. The Turks are by no means discouraged, and have great faith in their military power. Turkey, through her Ambassadors at the European Courts, has decidedly refused to grant an armistice, but expresses a willingness to treat for peace.
